The above named was reviewed at Singapore Paincare Center on 10th June 2020 for right radiculopathy over 6 months and pain over the right 4th finger of 1 month duration. She complained of pain (VAS 7/10) with tightness and numbness. This was aggravated by bending and doing household chores as well as lifting right shoulder and using her right hand and finger.

She experienced morning stiffness and was unable to use her hand to wring clothes. There was also weakness in the hand and fingers which affected her grip when holding things like a pen or toothbrush. She is unable to do household chores and needs help with it.

Clinical Diagnosis:

1. Right shoulder sprain S43.401A
2. Tenosynovitis fingers M65.849

Please assist in her application for a domestic helper.

Sincerely

Dear Sir /Madam,

Re: Urgent Appeal for Helper

Recently I went for surgery to help with the sudden pain which occurred in my right hand.

I am stressed and could not handle the household chores. It is also painful to grip even a pencil at work. I really need a helper to help with the household and cooking. I also assist in looking after my grandchild (1 year old) who is staying with me too.

I hope that you will reconsider my case and help me to full recovery. I have many female friends of my age who is taking many months to get their pain heal and yet not even 100%.

In this aspect, I am truly so stressed that my weight has gone down 5 kg. Kindly help me as fast as possible. I really want to preserve my hand to be of good use for myself and my family in the future.

I enclosed the letter from the doctor who has done the surgery for me for your consideration too.

Thank You.

Yours Sincerely,

Mdam. Tan Peck Luan
