6 Demerit Points and $10,000 Security Deposit Forfeiture for Underage Foreign Domestic Worker (FDW)

Need information?

Visit www.mom.gov.sg for information on laws governing the employment of foreign manpower

Dear Licensee

1. Your employment agency brought in 1 underage foreign domestic worker (FDW) in August 2018. Her details are in the overleaf.
2. The Ministry has communicated with the industry on numerous occasions on the importance of ensuring that FDWs brought in to work in Singapore must meet the entry requirements. Your Agency is hereby warned and issued 6 Demerit Points for acting in a manner detrimental to your clients' interest.
3. As your employment agency has accumulated 12 demerit points in the past 12 months, S$10,000 of your security deposit will be forfeited. Under the Employment Agency licensing framework, you are required to top up your security deposit back to S$60,000. If you fail to do so, your licence may be suspended under S11(4) of the Employment Agencies Act (Chapter 92).
4. Should you have any clarifications, please contact Senior Investigation Officer Ms Melissa Tan at 6692 4351 or email her at Melissa_YT_Tan@mom.gov.sg.

Yours sincerely

Doreen Tan
