Subject: RE: update FDW working place address MOM:018730000245

Dear Flora Sha Farahizah

Thank you for your email on 11 March 2020.

The foreign domestic worker (FDW) working address will be based on the address reflected on the employer's address as per their NRIC.

If there is any changes to the address of the employer, employer is required to update the address at any of these places:

- Any neighbourhood police post or centre .
- Immigration & Checkpoints Authority (ICA) building .

This new address will automatically be updated as the FDW workplace. Employer will receive an acknowledgement letter by post within 2 weeks.

For more information on address change, you may refer to the following link: <https://www.mom.gov.sg/passes-and-permits/work-permit-for-foreign-domestic-worker/notify-mom-of-changes>

We hope the above clarifies.

Your Foreign Domestic Worker (FDW) has an interview scheduled by MOM.

Dear FDW employer,

Our records show that you currently employ the following FDW:

Name: NANT HNIN NWE MAR

WP No.: 0XXXXX3254

Nationality: MYANMAR

Your FDW has been selected to attend a compulsory interview, which will last about 1 hour. The interview details are found on the right.

To understand FDWs' working relationship with their employers and working environment, MOM requires FDWs to attend an interview conducted by the Centre for Domestic Employees (CDE) on behalf of MOM. During the interview, we will also take the opportunity to remind FDWs on the importance of safe working conditions, as well as their responsibilities.

Yours sincerely,
